

Program Educational Objectives for CENG

1. Obtain professional-level employment and practice chemical engineering in a wide variety of private and government institutions.
2. Apply technical expertise, communication and leadership skills to solve complex problems following professional ethics standards with consideration of social and environmental impacts.
3. Promote diverse, equitable, inclusive, and multidisciplinary teams that work efficiently to lead innovation and recognize technological and societal changes.
4. Engage in life-learning and continuous professional growth such as obtaining licensure as professional engineers and/or pursuing graduate studies.