The U.S. Department of Education requires UT Permian Basin to establish and apply reasonable standards of satisfactory academic progress for eligible students to receive financial assistance under the programs authorized by Title IV of the Higher Education Act. UT Permian Basin students who wish to be considered for federal student aid must maintain satisfactory academic progress as set forth in this policy. Satisfactory Academic Progress is a federal student aid eligibility requirement that is administered by the University, in addition to the academic standards of performance required under the UT Permian Basin Academic Progress Policy. Satisfactory Academic Progress is determined at the end of every term/pay period by the Office of Financial Aid and Scholarships. This policy also applies to state and institutional financial aid. Please Review the Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) Policy and Appeal process outlined at <https://www.utpb.edu/admissions-aid/financial-aid/docs/satisfactory-academic-progress-policy-and-procedures-updated-18-19.pdf> to determine if you are eligible to appeal for financial aid.
