SIX DROP RULE

Students who enrolled in a Texas public institution of higher education as first-time freshmen in the Fall 2007 and thereafter are not permitted to drop more than six course during their entire undergraduate career, (Texas Administrative Code 4.10) unless they show good cause (i.e. severe illness, death of a family member, or active military duty.) This limit includes all transfer work taken at other institutions of higher education. Any courses dropped prior to the census class day will not be considered attempted hours.

45+ HOUR RULE

Beginning the Fall 1999 Semester, first time freshmen, and entering freshmen thereafter, will be under the 45 Plus Hour Rule. The rule states that students who attempt more than 45 credit hours over their degree plan at Texas State funded institutions of higher education and have not yet earned a baccalaureate degree will be charged out-of-state tuition. Attempted hours include hours a student is registered for through the census class day. Any courses dropped prior to the census class day will not be considered attempted hours by the State. Students who have transcript course work prior to the Fall of 1999 are grandfathered from the 45 Plus Hour Rule.

30+ HOUR RULE (FOR FRESHMEN ENTERING DURING FALL 2006)

Beginning the Fall 2006 Semester, first time freshmen, and entering freshmen thereafter, will be under the 30 Plus Hour Rule. The rule states that students who attempt more than 30 credit hours over their degree plan at Texas State funded institutions of higher education and have not yet earned a baccalaureate degree will be charged out-of-state tuition. Attempted hours include hours a student is registered for through the census class day. Any courses dropped prior to the census class day will not be considered attempted hours by the State. Students who have transcript course work prior to the Fall of 2006 are grandfathered from the 30 Plus Hour Rule but may fall under the 45 Plus Hour Rule.

TUITION REBATE FOR STUDENTS GRADUATING WITH CLOSE TO THE MINIMUM REQUIRED CREDITS

In the Spring of 1997, the Texas Legislature passed Senate Bill 1907 which provides a $1,000 rebate of portion of the undergraduate tuition paid by certain students. These students are those Texas residents who are awarded a first baccalaureate degree and have attempted no more than three hours in excess of the minimum number of semester credit hours required to complete the degree, including transfer credit and course credit earned exclusively by examination. This rebate is effective only for students who were first time freshmen in the Fall of 1997 or later and who meet the requirements as specified by the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board.
