(1)English 2000-level courses taken to fulfill Language/Philosophy/Culture requirements cannot be used to fulfill Humanities requirements.

(2)Art or Music courses taken to fulfill Creative Arts requirements cannot be used to fulfill Humanities requirements.

(3)Humanities-related Disciplines at UTPB include Art, Communication, English, History, Music, and Spanish. Transfer courses for Humanities-related disciplines not taught at UTPB (for example, Philosophy, Religious Studies, Film, or languages other than English or Spanish) are also applicable. Upper-division Humanities-related courses must be (1) distributed among two to four fields and (2) must include at least two courses per field. This makes the following combinations of fields and courses possible: 6-2, 5-3, 4-4, 3-3-2, 4-2-2, 2-2-2-2.

(4)Capstone Course must be selected from Senior Seminar or designated senior-level courses in any of the Humanities-related disciplines, or can be chosen from equivalent transfer courses, or can be from designated 4000-level HUMA courses from UTPB.
