Graduate Reports to the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board

For graduate programs, the unit will prepare a summary of the programmatic self-study to be submitted to the Dean no later than 30 days after the written response from the reviewers is received. The dean's office will send the summary of the programmatic self-study, a copy of the external reviewer's evaluation, and a copy of the dean's response with the concurring signature of the Provost (April/May) within 60 days of the receipt of the external reviewers' written report. The Office of the Provost will transmit the materials to the Academic Quality and Workforce Division of the THECB no later than 180 days after the university receives the external reviewer's comments.
