Note: The earnings data reflect the most re cent actual earnings for students who graduated with a degree from UTPB between academic years 2016-17 and 2020-21. Earnings are based on a calendar year and are inflation-adjusted to reflect 2022 dollars. The data includes students who graduated from UTPB with full-time, full-year employment with earnings meeting the minimum threshold of $13,195 in the state of Texas.

Data on industry of employment are for the current (2022) industry of employment for graduates from the five most recent cohorts (i.e., those receiving their degrees in academic years 2016-17 through 2020-21). The data includes graduates from those cohorts who were working full time for the full 2019 year and excludes graduates who were known to be enrolled in school in 2022.
