

Sponsoring Organization	Name of Fellowship	Award Amount	Deadline Month	Notes
American Academy of Arts and Sciences	Hellman Fellowship in Science and Technology Policy	Stipend competitive and commensurate with experience	January	Educates early career scholars with training in science and engineering in public policy and administration; must have a Ph.D in an area of science or engineering; must be eligible to work in U.S.; Fellows are expected to be in residency at AAAS in Cambridge, MA; one year term with possibility of renewal
Vanderbilt University, Robert Penn Warren Center for the Humanities	William S. Vaughn Visiting Fellowship	Up to $50,000 + $2,000 for moving expenses	January	The Fellow will take part in a year-long seminar hosted by the Robert Penn Warren Center for the Humanities. Lively, collegial scholars from all disciplines are invited to apply. The seminar will explore innovative scholarly and popular approaches to telling stories emerging from the various humanistic disciplines and consider how these new approaches reframe the politics and ethics of storytelling. Please note: The Warren Center will not be offering a visiting fellowship in 2019/2020.
National Science Foundation	Science, Technology, and Society Scholar Awards	Up to $90,000 stipend plus summer support and funds for research assistance, for up to a total of $240,000	February, August	Considers proposals for research pertaining to science, technology, and society; review process is six months; Scholars Awards provide up to full-time release for an academic year and a summer to conduct basic research; no residency requirement
National Endowment for the Arts	Creative Writing Fellowships	$25,000	March	Prose and poetry grants alternate years; may submit only one application per year; must meet recent publication criteria (see website); no residency requirement
Open Society Foundation	Open Society Fellowship	Stipend of $80,000 or $100,000 plus project expenses	February	Supports individuals pursuing innovative and unconventional approaches to fundamental open society challenges. Applicants are invited to address the following proposition: New and radical forms of ownership, governance, entrepreneurship, and financialization are needed to fight pervasive economic inequality. Most fellowship terms are for one year, though the program will consider requests for shorter or longer durations; Foundation anticipates that most fellows will spend a portion of their fellowship term at one of the organization's main offices, in New York, Washington, London, Brussels, or Budapest, or at a regional foundation

Paris Institute for Advanced Study	Fellowship Programs	Varies; housing and travel to Paris is provided	March	The primary mission of the Paris IAS is to be a research centre anchored in the humanities and social sciences, open to any discipline and subject within this domain. Its aim is to enable a fruitful dialogue between researchers from different cultural and disciplinary backgrounds. The majority of fellowships are open to any discipline/subject within the humanities and social sciences. Paris residency for 5-9 months during the academic year is required. No citizenship requirements; applicants who have spent more than 12 months of the last 3 years in France are not eligible.
National Endowment for the Humanities	NEH Fellowship	$5,000/ month for 6-12 months	April	Supports humanities projects; recipients usually produce articles, monographs, books, digital materials, archaeological site reports, translations, editions, or other scholarly resources in the humanities. Funding may not be divided between researchers; teaching and administrative assignments or other major activities may not be undertaken during the fellowship period; no residency requirement; must be a U.S. citizen or have permanent residence
Council for International Exchange for Scholars	Fulbright Scholar Program	Varies	August	Teaching and/or research grants to scholars in all fields to spend 2-12 months overseas; must be a U.S. citizen; Ph.D or equivalent required; foreign language proficiency is required in some but not all programs

American Council of Learned Societies (ACLS)	ACLS Collaborative Research Fellowships	Varies, will not exceed $201,000 for a single project	September	Supports research in the humanities and related social sciences; tenure of up to 24 months, including 6-12 months devoted to full-time research; no residency requirement; all collaborators must hold Ph.D or equivalent; collaborators need not both be from the same institution; encourages participation of assistant and associate faculty; Project Coordinator must have an appointment at a U.S.-based institution. Please note: The ACLS Collaborative Research Fellowship program will not be offered in 2018-19.
American Council of Learned Societies (ACLS)	ACLS Fellowships	Maximum: $70,000 for full professor; $50,000 for Associate Professor; $40,000 for Assistant Professor	September	Supports research in the humanities and related social sciences; tenure of 6-12 months devoted to full-time research; Ph.D must have been conferred at least 2 years before application deadline; most recent supported research leave must have ended at least 2 years ago; no residency requirement; must be a U.S. citizen or have permanent residence; also includes ACLS/New York Public Library Fellowships as well as ACLS/SSRC/NEH International and Area Studies Fellowships
American Council of Learned Societies (ACLS)	Frederick Burkhardt Residential Fellowships for Recently Tenured Scholars	$95,000, plus funds for research costs and related scholarly activities of up to $7,500 and for relocation up to $3,000	September	Supports long-term, unusually ambitious projects in the humanities and related social sciences; open to recently tenured humanists; 9 month residential fellowship - Fellows will spend an academic year at one of the 13 national residential research centers participating in the program; Fellows do not need to be a U.S. citizen or permanent resident, but must be employed by a U.S. institution for the duration of fellowship

Guggenheim Foundation	Guggenheim Fellowship	Varies	September	Mid-career awards for scholars who have already demonstrated exceptional capacity for productive scholarship in any field or exceptional creative ability in the arts; 6-12 months of support available; former Guggenheim Fellows are not eligible to apply for another award
Harvard University	Radcliffe Institute Fellowship Program	Up to $77,500 for one year, $38,750 for a semester, with additional funds for project expenses; fellows may also be eligible to receive relocation, housing, and childcare funds	September	Fellows are expected to reside at Radcliffe in Cambridge, MA, for the length of their fellowship, and to have their primary office in the Institute for the time period; all disciplines are welcome, including arts, journalism, humanities, sciences, and social sciences; may apply as an individual scholar or in a cluster; former Radcliffe Fellows are not eligible to apply again
New York Public Library	Cullman Center Fellowship	Up to $70,000	September	Supports those who would benefit from access to the collections at the Stephen A. Schwarzman Building in New York NY, including academics and independent scholars in the humanities and social sciences, and creative writers; Fellows appointed for nine month terms; awards are made based on excellence in previous work and new project's need for access to NYPL research collection; no citizenship requirement
Council on Foreign Relations	International Affairs Fellowships	Varies	October	Provides opportunities for mid-career academics and professionals in the field of international relations to spend between six months and one year bridging the gap between the study and making of U.S. foreign policy. The program offers its fellows the chance to experience a new field and gain a different perspective at a pivotal moment in their careers. Academics are placed in public service and policy-oriented settings. Possible host placements for the fellowship appointment include the United States, Canada, or Japan.

				Concentrations are available in International Economics and Nuclear Security.
National Humanities Center	National Humanities Center Fellowship	Individually Determined	October	Residential Fellowships in Research Triangle Park, NC, for advanced study in the humanities; also accepts individuals from the natural and social sciences, the arts, the professions, and public life who are engaged in humanistic projects; must have Ph.D. or equivalent, and a record of publication; support available for junior and senior scholars; no citizenship requirement
Stanford Humanities Center	External Faculty Fellowship	Stipend up to $70,000 and $30,000 for moving and housing	October	Supports projects in the humanities; must have had Ph.D. for at least three years by start of the fellowship year; fellowships are awarded across the spectrum of academic ranks (assistant, associate, and full professor); appointments are for one academic year and require residency in Stanford, CA; no citizenship requirement; applicants who have received a major research grant within the last three years generally will not be as competitive as other applicants; former Fellows are not eligible to apply for another award
Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars	Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars Fellowship	Varies, includes travel costs for scholar and his/ her family	October	Supports research by outstanding and award winning scholars, practitioners, journalists and public intellectuals addressing public policy challenges both nationally and internationally; 4-9 month residential fellowships in Washington, DC; no citizenship requirement
Institute for Advanced Studies	The School of Historical Studies	Typically $37,500 per semester	October	Must have several articles published in scholarly publications and must hold Ph.D (or equivalent) at time of application; areas of study include: all fields of historical research, but is concerned principally with the history of Western, Near Eastern and Asian civilizations, with particular emphasis upon Greek and Roman civilization, the history of Europe (medieval, early modern, and modern), the Islamic world, East Asian studies, art history, the history of science and philosophy, and modern international relations; supports one or two semesters of residency at IAS in Princeton, NJ; no citizenship requirement

American Association of University Women (AAUW)	AAUW Research Leave Fellowships	$30,000	November	Designed to assist female scholars in obtaining tenure and other promotions by enabling them to spend a year pursuing independent research; no residency requirement; must be a U.S. citizen or permanent resident
Ford Foundation	Fellowships	One year stipend of $45,000 and expenses to attend one conference of Ford Fellows	November	One year awards will be made to early career faculty and postdocs in the humanities, sciences, and social sciences who have demonstrated superior academic achievement, are committed to a career in teaching and research at the college or university level, show promise of future achievement as scholars and teachers, and are well prepared to use diversity as a resource for enriching the education of all students. Open to scholars who obtained PhD or ScD within the last seven years; must be a U.S. citizen, national, or permanent resident.
Harry Ransom Center, UTexas Austin	Research Fellowship	$3,500/ month for 1-3 month Fellowships or $2,000 Travel Stipend	November	Supports fellowships for humanities projects that require substantial on-site use of the Center's collections in Austin, TX; range from 1 month-3 months; must have a Ph.D. or be an independent scholar with a substantial record of achievement; no citizenship requirement
Institute for Advanced Studies	The School of Social Science	Up to $75,000	November	Must hold Ph.D (or equivalent) at time of application; awards are made to both junior and senior scholars; areas of study include economics, political science, law, psychology, sociology and anthropology, history, philosophy, literary criticism, literature and linguistics; fellowships are for full academic year residency at IAS in Princeton, NJ

The Newberry Library	Long Term Fellowships	$4,200/ month	November	Supports residential fellowships for 4-12 months at the Library in Chicago, IL; there are a number of different fellowship opportunities with specific criteria - see web site for more information; preference given to those who haven't held major fellowships in last three years; must live and work outside Chicago area
Department of Defense, Office of Naval Research	Office of Naval Research Summer Faculty Research & Sabbatical Leave Program	$1,400-$1,900/ week for summer research plus assistance for travel and relocation; Stipend level varies for sabbatical leaves	December	Supports participation of science and engineering faculty in research of mutual interest to the faculty member and peers at U.S. Navy Laboratories; Summer Faculty Research program offers 10 week residency and Sabbatical Leave Program offers fellowships for one semester or one year; at discretion of lab, may bring undergrad or grad student to assist with research; open to U.S. citizens and legal permanent residents who hold teaching or research appointments at U.S. colleges and universities; some restrictions may apply to permanent residents regarding eligibility for a DoD security clearance